Profile

I am a Computer Science student seeking hands-on experience in real-world projects. I have a solid foundation in web development and problem-solving.

I have enhanced my technical skills through internships and training programs, including CS50 by Harvard with ITI, CIB Summer Internship, Networking & Cyber Security at Suez Canal Authority, .NET Training at ITI.

I've built strong leadership, communication, and teamwork skills through various roles, including Vice Team Leader at Mish Hackers, Logistics Leader and later Training Committee Member at YLY.
